FORM OF REGISTRABLE MEMORANDUM

Section 155A, Land Transfer Act 1952

Class of instrument in which provisions intended to be included:

Mortgage – (all obligations)

The following provisions are intended for inclusion in instruments of the above class.

PLEASE READ THIS PAGE FIRST

This document contains terms and conditions that bind you when you agree to borrow against the security of a mortgage of land and the mortgage instrument selected in Landonline is "All Obligations". If you are borrowing money under a consumer credit contract, you must be given a copy of this document. You must also be given a copy of the consumer credit contract that applies to your loan.

In this mortgage, when we use the words "you" or "the party giving this mortgage" we mean the person or persons to whom we lend money against the security of this mortgage as well as the person or persons who are registered as the owner or owners of the land over which this mortgage is secured.

This mortgage secures all obligations that you owe the mortgagee being loans or credit made available to you by the mortgagee relying upon the security of this mortgage. The details of these obligations may be recorded in a "secured agreement" or any other document.

You are bound by these terms and conditions as if they had been set out at full length in the document that you sign that results in your borrowing money and giving a mortgage.

This document does not create the mortgage on its own nor does it contain all of the terms that relate to your borrowing. The terms and conditions that apply to your credit contract (other than those implied by law) are set out in the following documents:

- either:
 - a "Mortgage Instrument (all obligations)" including each Annexure Schedule attached to it; or
 - a "Mortgage Agreement (all obligations)";
- and
- this Registerable Memorandum 2015/4328.

Whenever we refer to "this mortgage" we mean all of these documents together.

Some of the words and expressions used in this mortgage are defined terms. The meaning of these defined terms is set out in Part 1, clause 1.

HOW YOU GIVE A MORTGAGE OVER LAND

You will have given a mortgage over land if you sign an Authority and Instruction to a solicitor to register a mortgage against the land electronically (an electronic mortgage).

From the time that you give this mortgage you agree that you will be bound by its terms as if it were a deed.

From the time this mortgage is registered against the title to your land, your land is charged as security for repayment of debt. This means that if you fail to pay any amounts when they are due, the land may be sold and the proceeds of sale applied to repay or reduce the debt.

If the proceeds of sale do not repay the debt in full then, unless we have agreed in writing to the contrary or the law requires otherwise, you will remain liable to repay the balance of the debt owing.

WE RECOMMEND THAT YOU OBTAIN LEGAL ADVICE FROM A SOLICITOR INDEPENDENT OF THE LENDER BEFORE YOU GIVE THIS MORTGAGE.

26. LICENCE TO USE MEMORANDUM

The mortgagee acknowledges that copyright in the form and content of this memorandum is claimed and is owned by the Auckland District Law Society Incorporated (the ADLSi) and the mortgagee represents and warrants to the party granting the security and to the ADLSi that upon registration of the mortgage instrument incorporating the terms of this memorandum it has paid the required licence fee and has acquired the right to incorporate these terms in the mortgage instrument. The provisions of this clause confer a benefit on the ADLSi to the intent that a breach of this representation and warranty by the mortgage is enforceable by the ADLSi. A breach of this provision does not, however, invalidate the incorporation of the terms of the memorandum into the mortgage instrument.
