Personal Information Notice

1. The Police and Families Credit Union (Trading as the Police Credit Union) collects information about you ("Information") for the purposes of verifying your identity, considering this and any future applications, carrying out credit checks and monitoring your ongoing creditworthiness, determining whether the loan will meet your requirements and objectives, determining whether you will be able to make payments on the loan without suffering substantial hardship, and conducting any relationships (including sending you promotional material) we may have.
2. The Police Credit Union will take reasonable efforts to ensure that the Information is stored securely at our offices at Level 11, 57 Willis Street, Wellington.
3. You authorise the Police Credit Union to disclose the Information to any credit reporter to obtain a credit report about you and any guarantor, and to any debt collector, and in other instances where we are required by or authorised under the law to do so.
4. You acknowledge that you have the right to access and correct Information which is held by the Police Credit Union, and you may obtain a copy of that Information upon request. You acknowledge that you may be charged a reasonable administrative fee for being provided with the Information.
5. You understand that if you do not provide the Information, the application may be declined, or our ongoing relationship terminated.
6. You authorise the Police Credit Union to disclose your Information to credit reporters to enable them to provide credit reporting services (which may involve them providing that credit information about you to other parties). You authorise the Police Credit Union to make enquiries with credit reporting agencies so that the Police Credit Union can carry out credit checks and monitor your creditworthiness. In the event of any default, you authorise the Police Credit Union to provide your personal information to debt collectors to enable them to take steps to recover any indebtedness.
7. In this notice, references to the Police Credit Union include, wherever the context permits, its successors and assigns.

Declaration

- I am 18 years of age or older, and have read and understood this application.
- I confirm that the Information supplied by me is true and complete and I understand that it has been given to enable you to consider this application.
- I authorise any person to complete and furnish you with any information in response to my credit or employment enquiries at any time.
- I confirm that I have read and agree to the Personal Information Notice above.
- I acknowledge that a reason need not be given should this application be declined.
- I certify that I am not an undischarged bankrupt or under a No Asset Procedure or Summary Instalment Order and I can pay my debts as they become due from my own money.
- I will contact the Credit Union should there be any change in the details provided in this application.
